77-0283072Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Storyteller Children's Center is a non-profit organization that provides high quality early childhood education for homeless and at risk children, as well as comprehensive support services for their families. These families fall well below the poverty guidelines and are living in shelters, cars or in multiple family environments, and nearly half of Storyteller children have special needs due to their traumatic early life experiences. Storyteller's three-pronged approach to school readiness involves the parents, the teachers and the child. Our goals are for children to be prepared to enter Kindergarten ready to learn, their families able to support their child's learning and development, and that our teachers are trained as best in class and able to be effective therapeutic educators. Our seamless integration of all day services includes early childhood education, therapeutic counseling, 2.5 healthy meals a day, and medical screenings for our children; parent education classes, home visits, case management and counseling are offered to our parents. We work with 4 agencies that visit our students weekly to work on speech therapy, behavior modification, motor skills and mental health related issues. Our curriculum also helps our students understand their feelings, problem solve, and keep anger from escalating. Storyteller children and families come from the trauma lens and our teachers are trained through what we call "Reflective Practice and Supervision." Our teachers are effective therapeutic educators and have the capacity to respond to the critical needs of each family. Storyteller Children's Center operates one classroom for toddler (children 18 to 36 months), one classroom for young children who are not socially emotionally ready to enter preschool (starting at 3 years old), and two classrooms for preschool aged children (3.5 through 5 years).

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

Storyteller's CA State Preschool Program: Storyteller receives funding for 20 children to attend a full-day preschool program at Storyteller Children's Center. The majority of the children must be 4 years of age before the academic school year begins on July 1. A minority number of 3 year-old children are allowed. The funding received from CSPP covers approximately 2/3 of Storyteller's cost to provide the program, and the balance is covered by private donations. The majority of families of the children in the CSPP classroom fall below the federal poverty line, however CSPP allows families to pay a small prorated family fee to attend the program if they earn above poverty wages.

Children in the CSPP receive all the therapeutic and program benefits described in Schedule O of this document.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Third Accomplishment

The Storyteller Steps and Toddler Programs: Storyteller has two additional programs for younger children. Children can start at Storyteller as young as 18 months and enter the Toddler room where they receive specialized programs to suit each child's needs with a teacher to student ratio of 1:6. When a child turns 3 years old in the Toddler Program, he/she is no longer allowed to be in the same classroom or play space as the younger children and is promoted to the Storyteller Steps Program or to Head Start or CSPP. Children stay in the Storyteller Steps Program for up to a year or two and are moved to a preschool program when they qualify by age. Storyteller
